Quinta South

The South Course at Quinta do Lago is one of Portugal's most celebrated championship layouts. Host to the Portuguese Open on eight occasions, this superb par-72 course weaves through umbrella pines, lakes and the stunning Ria Formosa Natural Park. Combining outstanding scenery with a challenging yet enjoyable test of golf, the South Course remains a favourite among golfers visiting the Algarve.

Quinta North

The North Course was totally redesigned in 2014, by renowned architect Beau Welling, in conjunction with former European Ryder Cup captain Paul McGinley. The new layout has been built to the highest specifications, with an investment of €9million.

Laranjal

The most recent course to be added to the Quinta do Lago group. Built in an orange grove with lush fairways and well defined greens this a superb course and a pleasure to play.
